Objective of the Event	The elocution event on "Measures to be Taken to Prevent Sexual Harassment" held at Government Degree College for Men, Srikakulam, aimed to raise awareness about sexual harassment prevention strategies, empower students to become advocates for change, and foster a culture of respect and safety within the college community. Additionally, the event aimed to recognize and reward participants for their contributions to the discourse on this important topic.
Description of the event	On November 25, 2020, Government Degree College for Men, Srikakulam, organized an elocution event focused on "Measures to be Taken to Prevent Sexual Harassment." The event was attended by retired Principal Dr. Babu Rao, who graced the occasion as a special guest, highlighting the college's commitment to

	addressing sexual harassment and promoting a safe learning environment. Women Empowerment Coordinator Dr. T. Swarna Latha and other women faculty members also participated actively in organizing and facilitating the event. Students were invited to deliver speeches on various preventive measures against sexual harassment, including raising awareness, promoting gender sensitivity, and implementing robust reporting mechanisms. Participants shared their insights, experiences, and recommendations, contributing to meaningful discussions on the topic. After the elocution competition, a prize distribution ceremony was held to recognize and reward the winners. This ceremony served to acknowledge the efforts and contributions of the participants in advocating for sexual harassment prevention and promoting a culture of respect and dignity within the college.
Outcome of the Event	The elocution event on "Measures to be Taken to Prevent Sexual Harassment" yielded several significant outcomes: Awareness and Education: The event increased awareness about sexual harassment prevention strategies among students, faculty, and administrators, fostering a better understanding of the issue and its implications. Empowerment: Participants were empowered to become advocates for change and active contributors to creating a safer and more respectful college environment. By sharing their perspectives and recommendations, students played a crucial role in promoting dialogue and action on sexual harassment prevention. Recognition of Efforts: The prize distribution ceremony recognized and rewarded the winners of the elocution competition, acknowledging their efforts in advancing the discourse on sexual harassment prevention. This served as an encouragement for continued engagement and advocacy among students. Commitment to Action: The event reinforced the college's commitment to addressing sexual harassment and promoting a culture of respect and safety. It emphasized the importance of collective efforts in creating a conducive learning environment where all individuals feel valued and protected.

In conclusion, the elocution event on "Measures to be Taken to Prevent Sexual Harassment" at Government Degree College for Men, Srikakulam, not only raised awareness and empowered students but also recognized and celebrated their contributions to promoting a culture of respect and safety within the college. Moving forward, it is essential to build upon the momentum generated by this event and continue working towards creating a more inclusive and equitable learning environment for all.
