Objective of the Event	To honor and celebrate the life and humanitarian contributions of Mother Teresa, inspiring students with her legacy of kindness and compassion.
Description of the event	Mother Teresa's birthday was celebrated at Government Degree College for Men, Srikakulam, in an event organized by the IQAC and the Women Empowerment Cell (WEC). Smt. S. Aruna Kumari, the WEC Coordinator, organized the event, and Dr. P. Surekha, Principal, attended as the chief guest. During the celebration, Principal Dr. P. Surekha delivered a speech emphasizing that Mother Teresa is one of the greatest humanitarians the world has ever known. She highlighted that Mother Teresa devoted her entire life to serving the poor and needy, despite being a non-Indian who spent almost her entire life helping the people of India. The principal shared that Mother Teresa received her name from the church after St. Teresa, was a Christian by birth, and chose to be a nun. She was known for her saintly qualities, kindness, and compassion. The principal also stressed that Mother Teresa is an inspiration not only for millions but also for future generations. Students must learn about this kind soul who devoted her life to the well-being of others. The IQAC Coordinator further motivated students by discussing the
