Description of the event	Ugadi (Telugu New Year) was celebrated at Government Degree College for Men, Srikakulam, with various cultural programmes organized by the Department of Telugu. The event featured Panchanga Sravanam (reading of the Panchangam) and was attended by Sri. M.V. Satyanaryana, Principal Incharge, who graced the occasion as the chief guest. Students attended the event in traditional attire, adding to the festive atmosphere. During the celebration, Principal Incharge Sri. M.V. Satyanaryana educated the students about the cultural significance of Ugadi. He shared the special Ugadi item, Pachadi, with all attendees, symbolizing the diverse experiences of life. He explained that Ugadi, also known as Yugadi or Samvatsarādi, marks the beginning of the New Year according to the Hindu calendar and is celebrated in the states of Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Karnataka, and Goa. The term Ugadi is derived from 'Uga' meaning 'Course of Stars' and 'Adi' meaning 'Starting'. This day is observed on the first day of the Hindu lunisolar calendar month of Chaitra, typically falling in late March or early April.

Out come of the Event	The celebration of Ugadi successfully promoted cultural heritage and traditional practices among the students. The event provided an opportunity for students to learn about the historical and cultural significance of Ugadi. The sharing of Ugadi Pachadi and the Panchanga Sravanam enhanced the students' understanding and appreciation of their cultural roots. The event fostered a sense of unity and cultural pride among the participants.
