Description of the event	On November 26, 2019, Government Degree College for Men, Srikakulam, observed Constitution Day (Samvidhan Divas) to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. The event was organized by the Department of Political Science, with Dr. G. Janardhana Naidu serving as the coordinator. The event commenced with a gathering where the significance of Constitution Day was emphasized. Justice B. Gautham Prasad, Additional District Judge, attended as the chief guest, alongside Dr. M. Babu Rao, Principal of the college. In his address, Justice B. Gautham Prasad highlighted the importance of Constitution Day, marking the adoption of the Constitution by the Constituent Assembly on November 26, 1949. He noted that the Constitution came into effect on January 26, 1950, and has since been the cornerstone of India's democracy and governance. Justice Prasad also discussed the decision by the Government of India, announced by the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment on November 19, 2015, to officially recognize November 26th as Constitution Day. This initiative aims to enhance awareness and appreciation of the constitutional values and principles among citizens.

	Dr. G. Janardhana Naidu, the event coordinator and Incharge of the Department of Political Science, delivered an informative speech. He reiterated the significance of Constitution Day and encouraged students to reflect on the impact of the Constitution on Indian society. Dr. Naidu urged students to embrace the values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity as outlined in the Preamble to the Constitution. The event concluded with a pledge-taking ceremony, where students and staff reaffirmed their commitment to upholding the constitutional values that define India's democratic ethos.
Out come of the Event	The Constitution Day observance successfully enhanced students' understanding of the importance of the Constitution of India. It instilled a sense of pride in the nation's democratic heritage and emphasized the significance of active citizenship. The event also reinforced the college's commitment to promoting constitutional values among its students.
