Description of the event	On September 28, 2019, the Department of Telugu at Government Degree College for Men, Srikakulam, organized a celebration to honor the birthday of the modern Telugu poet, Gurram Jashuva. The event commenced with the lighting of the lamp, symbolizing the beginning of the celebration. Dr. M. Babu Rao, the Principal, served as the Chief Guest. In his address, Dr. Babu Rao highlighted the significance of Gurram Jashuva in the Telugu literary world. He emphasized that Jashuva was a legendary figure who used his poetry to address and protest against the caste-based discrimination prevalent in society. His universal approach and profound wisdom made him a "Poet of the Millennium," whose works continue to resonate with readers across generations. The organizer and speaker, Dr. M. Srinivasa Rao, Incharge of the Telugu Department, further elaborated on Jashuva's literary contributions. He discussed how Jashuva's works consistently advocated against untouchability, supported Dalit rights, and challenged social segregation. Among Jashuva's most notable works are "Gabbilam" (A Bat), "Firadausi" (A Rebel), and "Kandiseekudu" (A Refugee). Dr. Srinivasa

	Rao also mentioned how verses from Jashuva's poetry were integrated into the popular mythological play "Harischandra," particularly in scenes set within cremation grounds. The event successfully conveyed the importance of Jashuva's works, emphasizing their relevance in today's society and inspiring students to appreciate and engage with Telugu literature.
Out come of the Event	The celebration of Gurram Jashuva's birthday provided students with a deeper understanding of his contributions to Telugu literature and social reform. The event motivated participants to reflect on the themes of social justice and equality found in Jashuva's works, fostering a greater appreciation for the role of literature in advocating for social change.
