Objective of the Event	The objective of this event was to spread awareness about the inequities that girls face in Indian society, and to promote a healthy and safe environment for girls. The elocution aimed to encourage students to think critically about these issues and to express their thoughts on the importance of empowering girls for a brighter tomorrow.

Description of the event

The Women Empowerment Cell of Government Degree College for Men, Srikakulam, organized an Elocution Competition on National Girl Child Day, 24th January 2019. The event saw the participation of 18 students who delivered speeches in Telugu, focusing on the various challenges faced by girls in society, and the importance of ensuring their rights and dignity.

After the elocution, the organizer, Smt. S. Aruna Kumari, addressed the gathering. She emphasized the significance of spreading public awareness about the inequities faced by girls in Indian society. Smt. S. Aruna Kumari highlighted the importance of organized programs and awareness campaigns such as Save the Girl Child, which focus on improving child sex ratios and creating a healthy and safe environment for girls. She also reflected on the theme for 2019, 'Empowering Girls for a Brighter Tomorrow,' encouraging everyone to contribute to a brighter future for the girl child.

Outcome of the Event

The event successfully raised awareness among students about the challenges faced by girls in society. The participants were motivated to take an active role in promoting gender equality and ensuring a safe and empowering environment for girls. The event also fostered a deeper understanding of the importance of girl child rights and the need for continued efforts to address the inequities they face.
