Objective of the Event	The Rangoli competition was organized to celebrate the traditional festival of Pongal and to encourage students to showcase their artistic talents. The event aimed to foster creativity, cultural appreciation, and a sense of community among the students.
Description of the event On 10th January 2022, the Cultural Club of Government Degree College for Men, Srikakulam organized a Rangoli Competition as part of the Pongal Celebrations. The event commenced at 3:00 PM with enthusiastic participation from 17 students. Each participant was given 45 minutes to complete their Rangoli designs, which were evaluated based on neatness, creativity, and overall presentation. The vibrant colors and intricate patterns created by the students added a festive spirit to the college atmosphere. The competition was conducted smoothly under the coordination of Dr. S. Dilleswara Rao.
Outcome of the Event	The Rangoli Competition successfully brought together students from different departments to celebrate Pongal in a culturally meaningful way. The participants showcased their artistic abilities, and the event highlighted the importance of traditional art forms in our cultural heritage. The competition also encouraged teamwork and a healthy competitive spirit among the students. The event concluded with the announcement of winners, who were awarded for their outstanding Rangoli designs.
