(Affiliated to Dr.BRAU, Srikakulam)

One Day National Webinar

on

Radiochemistry & its Applications

Objectives:

- ❖ To impart knowledge in historical background of origin of Nuclear Chemistry
- ❖ To popularize the subject of Nuclear Chemistry and applications of Radioisotopes among students
- ❖ To update students on the applications of isotopes in industrial, agricultural, medical and nuclear energy fields
- ❖ To attract students towards the research and study on Nuclear Sciences
- ❖ To create awareness on handling of radioactive materials

Dr. R. Kumaresan

Head, Pyrochemical Processing Studies Section
Metal Fuel and Pyroprocessing Division
Materials & Metal Fuel Cycle Group
Indira Gandhi Centre for Atomic Research
Homi Bhabha National Institute
Kalpakkam – 603 102
Ph: +91-44-27480500-24035(exttn)
Emails: rkum@igcar.gov.in rkum79@gmail.com

Brief Bio-data

Dr. R. Kumaresan obtained his Master's degree from V.H.N.S.N College, Madurai Kamaraj University in the year 2002. He did PhD in the field of separation science and received a doctorate degree from the University of Madras. He joined IGCAR in the year 2009 as Scientific Officer-D. He contributed towards the development of a process for minor actinides partitioning and subsequent radioactive waste treatment. His current project is on direct oxide electrochemical reduction of metal oxides. His major research interests are solvent extraction and ion exchange, radio-analytical techniques, molten salt electrochemistry, and electrometallurgy.

He has about 35 publications in peer-reviewed Journals and about 40 national and international conference proceedings. He is one of the recipients of the DAE Group Achievement award in the year 2011.

He is a life member of the Indian Association of Nuclear Chemists and Allied Scientists (IANCAS) and Advancement of Chemical Sciences and Education (SACSE). He is associated with conducting radiochemistry workshops in various schools and colleges.

Biodata of Dr. C V S Brahmanand Rao

Dr. Brahmananda Rao did his graduation in BSc Chemistry (Hons.) from Delhi University and post-graduation in chemistry from the University of Hyderabad and joined the 38th batch of BARC Training School in 1994. After training, he joined Radiochemistry Laboratory at IGCAR in 1995. He did his Ph.D. from Madras University in the field of organic ligand synthesis and its application for the recovery of actinides.

He is head of the Mass spectrometric studies section in Fuel Chemistry Division at IGCAR.

He has over 100 publications in various national and international journals, seminars and symposia.

He is the Dean of Chemical Sciences in Homi Bhabha National Institute, Mumbai.

His field of interest includes synthetic organic chemistry, the development of alternate extractants for actinide recovery, computational chemistry and high-temperature mass spectrometry.

Dr. A. Sree Rama Murthy

Novel Chemical Sensors Section
Materials Chemistry Division
Fuel Materials Chemistry Group
Materials & Metal Fuel Cycle Group
Indira Gandhi Centre for Atomic Research
Homi Bhabha National Institute
Kalpakkam – 603 102
Ph: +91-44-77480500-24172 (extn)

Brief Bio-data

Dr. A. Sree Rama Murthy completed MSc from Andhra University, Visakhapatnam in 2006 and joined Bhabha Atomic Research Centre as a trainee scientific officer. After completion of 50th batch of OCES training at BARC, he joined Indira Gandhi Centre for Atomic Research, Kalpakkam in 2007 as a Scientific Officer. He pursued PhD in Chemical Sciences from the Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore in 2017. He is also an Assistant Professor at Homi Bhabha National Institute. His major research interests include semiconducting metal oxide synthesis, characterization and studying their application towards gas sensing, application of multivariate analysis tools to process the sensors' data and development of solid electrolyte based potentiometric sensors for liquid sodium applications.

He has about 15 publications in peer-reviewed international journals and about 20 national and International conference proceedings/symposia for his credit. He is the recipient of the Young Researcher Medal of the Society for Materials Chemistry (SMC) for the year 2021.

He is a life member of the Society for Advancement of Chemical Sciences and Education (SACSE) and the Society for Materials Chemistry (SMC). He takes a keen interest in various SACSE related activities in delivering lectures, conducting quizzes, demonstrating experiments for students at different levels of schools, Colleges and Universities in South India.
