Contact number &amp; Address of the Expert
Objective of the Event	The main objective of the event is to increase understanding among students and faculty members about the significance of intellectual property rights.
Description of the event	On October 19, 2019, we organized an awareness event about Intellectual Property Rights (IPR). Dr. Sharma Gowda, who works as an Assistant Controller for Patents &amp; Designs at the IP Office in Chennai, was our special guest. He talked to the students about IPR and its significance. The Principal of Government Degree College (M), Srikakulam, also attended the event as a special guest. The event aimed to help students understand more about Intellectual Property Rights. A total of 62 students took part in the event. They actively joined in group discussions where they talked and shared their thoughts. The main goal of the event was to make students more aware of Intellectual Property Rights. They learned how important it is to protect new ideas, inventions, and creations. With Dr. Sharma Gowda's insights, the students gained a better understanding of how Intellectual Property Rights work and why they matter. The event was a success in achieving its objective of spreading awareness among the students. Through group discussions and the informative talks by our special guests, the students got a clearer picture of the value of Intellectual Property Rights in various fields.

Outcome of the Event	The event successfully raised students' awareness about Intellectual Property Rights (IPR), teaching them how to protect their ideas. Dr. Sharma Gowda's insights and the group discussions helped students understand IPR's importance in different areas. Overall, the event encouraged students to value and safeguard their creative innovations.
