Resolution

13.11.2020

The Department of Economics met in the department and discussed several academic matters. The Certificate course on GST was successfully conducted and students received additional inputs as well as certificates. Hence it is decided to continue the same course this academic year also. The Covid-19 affected the academic calendar and there is a need for additional curricular activities to refresh the students. Hence the department unanimously decided to start the course from 16th November and to complete by 19th December i.e. 30 working days. This year also it is decided to make this course at free of cost as Covid-19 affected all families financially.

The Department of Economics met in the Department and discussed several academic matters. Entrepreneurship. The Department members have decided to start a new certificate course for the VI semester students. The Department has decided to introduce such a course which will be useful for their academic as well as employment purpose. When the Economics Department conducted a study project on GST in 2017, it is observed that there was some ambiguity and confusion regarding the implementation of GST. Hence, it is unanimously resolved to design a short term course on GST with a duration of 30 working days from 1st November 2019 to 6th December, 2019. The timings are set at 4pm - 5pm daily without interrupting the regular time-table. It is decided to start this course as a free course to encourage and motivate more number of students to join and enrich their knowledge.
