Action Taken Report on Feedback from Various Stakeholders

2022-2023

As detailed above, the feedback on six perspectives of the curriculum was collected from all the stakeholders. A committee under the chairpersonship of the Principal, IQAC, and all the in-charges of various subjects was constituted to analyse the feedback.

1. After evaluation of the feedback, a detailed report is prepared with all the suggestions made by the stakeholders, and a copy of the same is sent to the Chairman of the Andhra Pradesh State Council of Higher Education, which plays a key role in designing and transacting the curriculum.
2. As per the suggestions of the employers, the committee resolved to take necessary steps to improve communication and employability skills among the students.
3. As part of this, the Principal & IQAC resolved to sign an MOU with Unnathi Foundation (an NGO) that works in collaboration with Infosys and the National Skill Development Corporation.
4. It also resolved to enhance the services of APSSDC in inculcating skills among the students.
5. Instructions were given to the in-charge department of English to conduct extracurricular activities to enhance interpersonal skills among the students.

Sir,

I would like to present the following information for your perusal and necessary action. Government Degree College (M), Srikakulam, is one of the distinguished institutions in and around Srikakulam district. The institution was established in the year . The college is founded with a noble intention of providing quality education to socially and economically backward youth. Though started on a low profile, it reached the heights of maintaining a strength of 1500-1800 students, which reflects the potential of the institution. The institution contains 56 teaching staff (including contract and guest faculty) and 31 non-teaching staff. The institution was accredited with NAAC B++ (2.90 CGPA) and is now getting ready for the fourth cycle of re-accreditation. In the process of transacting value-based education, the institute collected feedback from all the stakeholders of the institution. We are glad to inform you that, on average, above 50% of the stakeholders agreed that the curriculum is very helpful to the students for their all-round development. Herewith I send a copy of the detailed report for your consideration and necessary action.

Thanking you,
