Description of the event	World Population Day is celebrated annually on 11 July to focus attention on the urgency and importance of population issues. The Day was established by the then-Governing Council of the UN Development Programme in 1989, an outgrowth of the interest generated by the Day of Five Billion, which was observed on 11 July 1987. By resolution 45/216 of December 1990, the UN General Assembly decided to continue observing World Population Day to enhance awareness of population issues, including their relations to the environment and development. The Day was first marked on 11 July 1990 in more than 90 countries. 2022 theme is "A world of 8 billion: Towards a resilient future for all - harnessing opportunities and ensuring rights and choices for all". This year's theme aims to promote a flexible and sustainable future

Outcome of the Event	Students acts towards Human Resource Development and population control
