the shawled tribes and other traditional forest dwellers act is a key piece of forest legislation passed in indian on 18 December 2006.

Describe the managerial skills you have acquired (in terms of planning, leadership, team work, behaviour, workmanship, productive use of time, weekly improvement in competencies, goal setting, decision making, performance analysis, etc.

I have some managerial skills in the forest department but are very much lacking to the full extent.

- 1) Leadership skills.
- 2) Decision making skills
- 3) Problem solution
- 4) Goal setting
- 5) Planning
- 6) Workmanship

These are mainly used and learned that are needs to every one life managerial skills are the knowledge and ability we include in a managerial position to perform some specific activities

(or) tasks.

Describe how you could improve your communication skills for the improvement in oral communication, written communication, contextual understanding levels while communicating, anxiety management, understanding others & being understood by others, extempore speech, ability to articulate the key points, closing the conversation, maintaining nuances and protocols, greeting, thanking and appreciating others, etc.)

In forest department we are already a store to improve our skills mainly in group discussion and while leading a team.

Team work brings people for their to work towards a common goal. As can feel more satisfied and part of some thing bigger people with different point of views skills and interests so even our common work bond to some commonly common and debts are also clarify.

When we working together. I can learn many communication in this way. I can share my ideas and express concerns in the group discussion with the team
