5. Personal Experience of Participants:

Our students shared their reflections on participating in Graahya:

K. Gayatri Lakshmi, winner of the Elocution competition, said, "Participating in the Elocution event gave me the confidence to express my thoughts clearly and effectively. It was a rewarding experience."

V. Rajashekar, who won the Business Pitching competition, shared, "Presenting our business ideas in front of a panel was a great learning opportunity. It helped me refine my communication and entrepreneurial skills."

P. Satya Sai Prakash, winner of the Business Quiz competition, said a great time taking part in the business quiz at the Graahya event. It tested my knowledge of business topics and made me think fast under pressure. Working with my team made it more fun and challenging. Overall, it was a good learning experience and inspired me to learn more about business.

6. Key Learning and Impact:

Participation in Graahya provided our students with several key benefits:

Skill Development: Students honed their public speaking, leadership, and strategic thinking skills through competitions such as Elocution and Business Games.

Collaboration and Teamwork: Events like Business Games and Business Quiz fostered a spirit of collaboration and teamwork among the participants.

Confidence Building: The exposure to a competitive environment at the district level boosted the confidence of students, preparing them for future challenges.

Networking: The fest allowed students to connect with peers from other colleges, expanding their professional and personal networks.

7. Conclusion:

The participation of Government Degree College for Men, Srikakulam in Graahya, the district-level management fest at Sun Degree & PG College, Srikakulam, was a resounding success. Our students showcased their talent by winning several prestigious prizes and gaining invaluable experience. We extend our sincere gratitude to Sun Degree & PG College for organizing this enriching event and providing an excellent platform for student development. We look forward to participating in more such events in the future.
